Ways to remember a loved one

The death of someone close can sometimes feel like the most painful thing that has ever happened to you. Finding a lasting way to remember a loved one can be a great comfort. Here are a few things available from St Elizabeth Hospice to help.

Memory Tree

We have a beautiful Memory Tree located in our hospice in Ipswich. It is made up of hand carved bronze, aluminium and copper leaves. Each of these can be dedicated with an engraving of the name of loved ones.

Material Memories

With Material Memories, your loved one's favourite clothes can be handcrafted into a personal keepsake bear that can sit with you every day.

Multiple items of clothing can be used and any special requests can be considered, for example an emblem from a tie.

Memory Events

Throughout the year, we hold memory events where people come together to remember those that have died.

Tribute funds

A tribute fund is an online place where you can remember your loved one by sharing your thoughts, memories, photos, music and videos.

You can light a virtual candle and leave messages on special days such as birthdays and anniversaries. Over the years, you can see your fund grow and support the future of St Elizabeth Hospice.

A funeral tribute page can also be created on request. This acts as a funeral notice where you can share funeral arrangements with your friends and family. They can make their donations online and leave a message of condolence.

For more information on setting up a tribute page, visit: stelizabethhospice.org.uk/tribute-fund

Donations

Many supporters ask for donations in lieu of flowers at funerals and memorial services, to enable us to support other patients and their families.
